Past President Gail welcomed everyone to the Christmas Lunch.

Apologies were received from a large number of people:-

Shirley Faber (Her Sister died suddenly – condolences from your rotary family

Roger Barber & Rex Morris – Had to attend another funeral

Frank Geddes & George Wilson – Both a bit under the weather

Graham Corbett, John Barber, - Away

Due to Shirley's sudden departure we didn't have explanations of several other members and guests M.I.A.

As usual we had a great family lunch with lies and laughter abundant.

The Inner Wheel Club did a great job with the catering and we even took doggy bags home.

A big thanks to Pat for supplying the lovely raffle that Fleur Morris won.

It was great to see Bert & Betty again and both are still as sharp as a tack. Bert thanked everyone for the invite and still regards himself as a member of our club and enjoys reading the Chronicles and is very pleased to see we are going strong and haven't given up.

Debbie & Maurice supplied a lovely punch which went down well – thanks for that.

We all shared the Christmas Crackers and donned the hats which made Carlos look like a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle. Although Carlos has never seen Christmas Crackers before he did know about the Turtles.

Carlos has just finished sitting his NCEA exams and passed – well done!
