13th November Meeting at Whangarei South Club

Governor Bruce Rasmussen set the scene of the meeting to introduce the idea of the merger between Whangarei Rotary and Whangarei South Rotary

He outlined what he saw as the positives for such a merger

He went on the state The Rotary International Bylaws Section 2.05

- Financial and other obligations for the year must be completed by both clubs before a merger
- If fewer than 20 members are in the club to be merged
- That there are one or more existing clubs in the area
- Certification that each club has agreed
- Name, charter , chain, emblem, citations, honours board may be retained
- There must be an initial meeting with both clubs present to discuss the merger
- Merger of Rotary Club Form must be signed, this form obtained online.
- There must then be a full list of all members in the new club recorded online

Lloyd Morris gave an enlightening talk on the History of Whangarei Rotary Club, the Projects it has undertaken and its positive influence on the Whangarei community since its foundation. He then suggested future goals he would like to be considered – a permanent home for service groups to be purchased in Whangarei and the formation of a new club between Whangarei and Maungaturoto i.e. Waipu, Marsden
